Prominent Party Touring Florida.

Among the guests of the Windsor at General Polk Agency, the publisher of the Baltimore American, George A. Agnew arrived in Jacksonville Sunday morning in his private car, with a party of friends, who will be his guests at St. Augustine and Palm Beach, the prominent of Florida.

His guests include Mr. Paul Street, president of the George A. Agnew Construction Company, Mr. William S. Carroll, who was President Cleveland's Minister to Saxony, Mr. William Thomas, a prominent young attorney of Baltimore, and Mr. Louis Garvey, the Washington correspondent of the American.

The trip is given by General Agnew to celebrate the completion by the Fullier Steel Company of the American's new six-story steel building, whereby the American on the anniversary of the destruction of its old building in the great Baltimore fire, was enabled to appear from its new home on its splendid new premises.

Birthday Party.

Ruth Stewart, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stewart, celebrated her eighth birthday yesterday evening by inviting twenty of her young friends to a party at the Seaside Inn. The table was laid out with many of the games dear to the children's hearts and were decorated with candles and garlands, a beautiful birthday cake being a prominent place. After the children had eaten to their hearts' content games were indulged in, the entertainment concluding with a dance, the music being furnished by the hotel orchestra.

Christian Convention.

The Florida State Missionary Convention of the Christian Church is being held in Jacksonville this week beginning this evening, when the convention session will be preached by Rev. A. R. Miller, of Savannah.

The Christian denomination in Florida cannot be classed among the stronger denominations but there is a number of noted divines of the United States still attend the convention. In addition to this there are a number of women who have arrived from various states to take part in the meeting.

Tonight at the Opera House.

Wm. J. and E. H. Joseph will present the Congress of Nations and Ben Hur at the Opera House tonight. Eight hundred colored photographic plates across the full size of the stage opening, traveling across the entire stage from right to left, will present all these acts to be seen on the entire floor without looking at it.

This is the most attraction of the kind ever presented here and one which is said to have cost the owners over $1,000. The pictures are operated by an engine and are kept moving all the time.

The Natchez Senator has passed a law that organ grinders' muskets shall not work over $5,000 per year. The Natchez "Musical Land" has a better show than the Florida musician.

CITY FATHERS IN SESSION

Petition For Water Works Franchise Seems to Meet With City Council's Disapproval.

Council met in regular session last night with President Schmidt in the chair. Present: Aldermen Hunkeler, Schuch, Matthews, Clark, on call. Mayor and Matthews out of town. Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved.

Rolls to the amount of $149.25 were presented and ordered paid.

On motion Attorney Spencer was requested to make out how many volumes it will require to make a list of Supreme Court decisions in Florida complete and how much some will cost.

Motion was amended to read that Attorney Spencer and City Clerk be instructed to lay the volume needed to call to Spencer's attention their volume to be made a complete set of the Florida Supreme Court decisions and that the City accept C. H. Spencer's offer to donate his library to the City for a City library.

The original motion and amendment were ordered overruled.

Patron Alderman Armstrong, S. H. Gray and R. L. Armstrong for a franchise for water works in the City of Daytona were presented and read and were laid on table.

On motion the resolutions regarding bus and automobiles and vehicles in the City at Daytona to be referred to the Ordinance Committee to incorporate the petition of both ordinances in one ordinance and report same to Council. Carried.

Letter was read from Mr. Scott relative to truck, motor and the City. Was requested to ask Mr. Scott to furnish facts with regard to engine and without cost.

Motion by Alderman Matthews, seconded by Alderman Schmidt that Joe Bix be contracted with to stone one of the headlight engines in connection with the City of Daytona at $5.00 an hour or $2.00 per month for a year in addition to the cost of each property in need work. Carried.

On motion a Street committee was instructed to lay the line of the city street lot and at once protect said road against trespass by monumenting.

Birthday Anniversary

A surprise was planned and carried out very successfully yesterday afternoon at the passage of the First M. E. Church, by the Ladies Aid Society. The occasion was the seventy-second birthday anniversary of Mrs. Winifred, Mrs. Tracy's mother, who is spending the winter at this picturesque home.

The afternoon was spent in the very warm (as well as a kind of) genial and lovely women. At the close a hearty luncheon was served, which sent every one away in a happy spirit.

A VISIT ON THE FIRST BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY OF THE LADIES AID SOCIETY

Musical at G. W. Brown's.

One of the happiest gatherings of the season was entertained last night by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown in their beautiful home, 222 Ridgewood avenue. Each winter for three months these kind people have with them a party of from eight to ten people from different parts of the north and west to enjoy their home and their climate, and each spring, before separating to go to their different homes, their entertainers give a social function in which many local friends are invited.

The special feature of last night's entertainment was the music provided, which was by Major Dan V. Downing of Middleport, Ohio, with his impetuous and skill with the violin, was a splendid treat and thoroughly enjoyed by all. His wife sang a solo, accompanied by organ and violin, and received deserved praise. The other part of the program was furnished in song by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harris, the well known songwriters and singers of Evanston, Ill. These people have been in the city a month and it is safe to say that no other singers have been heard here. They sing the gospel hymns in a way that reaches hearts as few producers can do in sermons. They sang last night at their best and their songs delighted and edified their delighted hearers. In the closing song, all present plunged into the chorus and sang as with a common spirit that and stirring. "In the Sweet Bye and Bye."

An Auto Mishap.

Two prominent gentlemen, one from an auto ride Saturday, were discussing auto troubles, when one of them remarked that it was his luck to always have some unpleasant experience when he was responsible for the condition of the machine. His friend, who was driving and had prepared the auto for the evening's trip, stated that he had never yet had an unpleasant experience. He had hardly made the statement when the auto stopped and, upon examination, the tank was found to be empty of gasoline. The first speaker, who was a prudent whole, remarked: "See! bring me gasoline if you want to keep your record."

Prominent Party Touring Florida.

Among the guests of the Windsor is General Felix Agnus, the publisher of the Baltimore American. General Agnus arrived in Jacksonville Sunday morning in his private car, with a party of friends, who will be his guests at St. Augustine and Palm Beach, and eventually Cuba.

His guests include Mr. Paul Sterrett, the president of the George A. Fuller Construction Company; Hon. William S. Carroll, who was President Cleveland's Minister to Saxony; Mr. William Thomas, a prominent young attorney of Baltimore, and Mr. Louis Garabie, the Washington correspondent of the American. The trip is given by General Agnus to celebrate the completion by the Fuller Company of the American's new sixteen-story steel building, whereby the American on the anniversary of the destruction of its old building in the great Baltimore fire, was enabled to appear from its new home on its splendid new presses.

Birthday Anniversary

A surprise was planned and carried out very successfully yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the First M. E. church, by the Ladies Aid Society. The occasion was the seventy-second birthday anniversary of Mrs. Waincott, Mrs. Troxel's mother, who is spending the winter at this parsonage home.

The afternoon was spent in the way common to such a band of genial and lovely women. At the close a dainty luncheon was served, which sent every one away in a happy spirit.

This band of ladies have been untiring in their efforts to make the pastor and his family comfortable in their home, and are now engaged in planning and having provided improvements for the interior of the parsonage that will make it very comfortable and attractive to the family and the host of friends who visit them. The feature particularly enjoyable to the pastor and family is the fact that it is being done without a single request from those who are to be so happily favored. Such ladies ought to live a hundred years.

Birthday Party.

Ruth Stewart, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Stewart, celebrated her eighth birthday yesterday evening by inviting twenty of her young friends to a party at The Seaside Inn. The tables were loaded with many of the goodies dear to the children's hearts and were decorated with candles and evergreens, a beautiful birthday cake occupying a prominent place. After the children had eaten to their hearts' content games were indulged in, the entertainment finishing with a dance, the music being furnished by the hotel orchestra.

B. B. Johnson, N. Y.; Jas. O. Wynn and wife, Atlanta; Mrs. Jas. A. Ford, Miss Dora Ford, Lyndberg, Va.; Mrs. M. E. Bates, New York, are guests of The Palmetto.

Christian Convention.

The Florida State Missionary Convention of the Christian Church is being held in Jacksonville this week beginning this evening, when the convention sermon will be preached by Rev. A. R. Miller, of Savannah.

The Christian denomination in Florida cannot be classed among the stronger denominations but there is nevertheless a large following. A number of noted divines of the United States will attend the convention. In addition to this there are a number of women who have arrived from various states to take part in the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Knox and their daughter, Mrs. S. A. Miller, of Buffalo, are again registered at The Ridgewood.

Tonight at the Opera House.

Wm. J. and E. B. Joselyn will present the Congress of Nations and Ben Hur at the Opera House tonight. Eight hundred colored photographic plates of the full size of the stage opening, traveling across the entire stage from right to left, will present all there is to be seen on the entire earth worth looking at.

This is the only attraction of the kind ever presented here and one which is said to have cost the owners over $4,000. The pictures are operated by an engine and are kept moving all the time.

The Nebraska Senate has passed a law that organ grinder's monkeys shall not work over 8 hours per day. The Nebraska "Missing Link" has a better show than the Florida mechanic.

CITY FATHERS IN SESSION

Petition For Water Works Franchise Seems to Meet With City Council's Disapproval.

Council met in regular session last night with President Harris in the chair. Present: Aldermen Hendricks, Schmidt, Matthews, Clark on roll call. Porter and Matthews out of town. Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved.

Bills to the amount of $110.75 were presented and ordered paid.

On motion Attorney Spencer was requested to find out how many volumes it will require to make his set of Supreme Court Decisions of Florida complete and how much same will cost.

Motion was amended to read that Attorney Spencer and City Clerk be instructed to buy the volumes needed to add to Spencer's twenty-three volumes to make a complete set of the Florida Supreme Court Decisions and that the City accept C. H. Spencer's offer to donate his library to the City for a City library.

The original motion and the motion as amended were carried.

Petition of Benj. A. Armstrong, S. H. Gove and B. L. Armstrong for a franchise for water works in the city of Daytona was presented and read and same was laid on table.

On motion the ordinances regulating hacks and automobiles and vehicles in the city of Daytona be referred to the Ordinance committee to incorporate the points of both ordinances in one ordinance and report same to Council. Carried.

Letter was read from Mr. Scott relative to rock crusher and the Clerk was requested to ask Mr. Scott to furnish bids both with engine and boiler and without same.

Moved by Alderman Matthews, seconded by Alderman Schmidt that as the fire limit ordinance is being infringed on in case of the Gardner building on lot 5 block 5, therefore, that Mayor Smith be instructed to immediately enforce the fire limit ordinance in this case to the full letter of such fire limit ordinance. Carried.

Moved by Alderman Matthews, seconded by Alderman Schmidt that Jas. Rix be contracted with to store one of the chemical engines in convenient location on lots 2 and 3 block 19, at a rental of $2.00 per month for a year with long or right to city if said property is not sold. Carried.

On motion the Street committee was instructed to get the lines of the city sand lot and at once protect said sand lot against trespass by unauthorized persons.

At the Opera House.

The rural comedy, Farmer H-pkins, presented at the opera house last night by Frank S. Davidson and his excellent company, brought on one of the largest audiences ever seen there.

The play suited the audience exactly and kept it in good humor from start to finish. Billy Howard, as the verdant youth, Hiram Do little, created peal after peal of laughter by his quaint jokes and amusing jestures. His solo "A maid with an aching heart" was especially worthy of praise and was enuchored to the echo. Miss Marie Fink, as Daisy Lindon, was well made up and enacted her role very creditably.

Frank S. Davidson, the manager and owner of the company, writes all of his own plays, the best of which probably are the one played last night, Robinson Crusoe and Folks up Willow Creek. He started out years ago giving shows by himself and gradually built up the show to its present force and well deserved good fortune.

Tonight at the opera house will be presented the Congress of Nations and Ben-Hur, invented and patented by Messrs. Josslyn. These enormous and beautiful scenes should prove a drawing card to lovers of shows of this character.

The new road between here and New Smyrna is completed with the exception of the bridge across Murray's creek and the bridge approaches.

BOOK GLUTTONY.

Lord Roschery on Wise Reading and the Sin of Borrowing Books.

In a speech made at the opening of a new Carnegie library in London Lord Roschery said, as reported in the London Mail: Knowledge is power, but that does not necessarily mean book knowledge. Book knowledge is only a part of the knowledge that constitutes power. Books are excellent things. It would be high treason to deny that, coming here to open a free library, but a glut of books is just as bad as a surfeit of anything else, and there are a great many excellent people in this world who spend all their days in reading and who are of no use to themselves or to anybody else.

The fact is that an appetite for reading without digesting is as unwholesome as any other form of gluttony. The man of vigorous life among men would beat the man of books always and at everything in this world. Libraries, however, give them the tools with which they can work out their own salvation.

Mr. Gladstone, by the aid of immense industry, was perhaps the only man I have ever known who was able to adjust the balance between his life of study and his life of action satisfactorily to himself and to others.

But books can also be an end in themselves. The man with a happy taste for books can come in, tired and scoured though he may be, and fall into the arms of some great author who would raise him from the ground and take him into a new heaven and a new earth, where he would forget his bruises and rest his limbs and return to the world a fresh and happy man.

No limitation of means can in these days excuse anybody from not buying books, but we must distinguish between books to be read and books to be bought. There are two further classes of books—the books that are borrowed from friends and returned and the books that are borrowed and not returned. The nonreturning of books has ended more friendships and terminated more affections than any other cause of which I am cognizant. The man who borrows one volume out of a set of volumes and never returns it is a man who should be treated like vermin—trapped or shot at sight or any other of the punishments which might be extended to the lowest and vilest of mankind.

The circulation of the DAILY NEWS is steadily increasing and on Monday, passed the 500 mark by a clear majority of 100. Monday's edition of the paper was exhausted fifteen minutes after the last form was off the press. 600 for a daily in a city the size of Daytona is a very creditable showing and is evidence that the public appreciate our efforts. It shall be our aim to build the circulation to a still higher figure and to accomplish this will make it better and better each day.

Here is the Ideal House.

Lecturing in Philadelphia, Dr. Robert Ellis Thompson described the city home of the future. He said it would contain no stoves. Cooking will be done by power, the building will be heated from a central plant, elevators will run from cellar to garret and breakfast, lunch and dinner will be supplied from co-operative center. The era of scientific cooking on the co-operative plan has been inaugurated in Bergen, Norway, where for nearly a generation cooking has been banished from the home, and all receive their meals from co-operative centers.

Not only will the house of the future be cleaned by power, but the dust will be removed by a pneumatic exhaust system. Streets will be cleaned in like manner, and the dust and dirt will be carried away into the country, so that country people may yet visit the cities for a breath of fresh air.

Little Points That Count.

A correspondent of the Sheffield Daily Telegraph, writing from Johannesburg, gives an interesting explanation of why the American adze eyed carpenter's hammer has supplanted hammers of Sheffield make in the South African market. The American hammer, he says, has an enormous sale, and the chief reason is because of its steel collar standing out from the hammer head. In the Transvaal, owing to the dryness of the climate, wood shuffts shrink rapidly, and hammer heads are soon loosened. The projecting collar of the American hammer gives a longer wedging space, and this simple advantage has enabled it to distance all competitors.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its widest expanse and midway between its source at Bulow Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 31° twenty-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high palm beach land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palm trees, glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bay and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the amolepis climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers, and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, macled and shelled roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long distance cycling and driving on automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,500. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.
The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as maul, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-ringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the sand bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at oblique, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the gray haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula
lying between river and ocean is one half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature
at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying. Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon. Individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.
